

Eleanor Roosevelt

PIONEER OF HUMAN RIGHTS

personal information

- Full Name: Anna Eleanor Roosevelt
- Date of Birth: October 11, 1884
- Place of Birth: New York City, United States
- Date of Death: November 7, 1962
- Nationality: American
- Languages: English – Native speaker
French – Fluent (She studied in Europe and spoke French confidently.)

Contact

+1 (212) 555-0198

mailto:eleanor.roosevelt@gmail.com

www.eleanorroosevelt.org

@ERoosevelt_Official

29 East 68th Street, New York City,
USA

Additional Information

- Driver's license; traveled mainly with official transportation.
- Writer and public speaker.
- Hobbies: Writing and reading.
- Interests: Human rights and social justice.

Professional Profile

Eleanor Roosevelt was the First Lady of the United States from 1933 to 1945 and one of the most influential women of the 20th century. She was a strong advocate for human rights, social justice, and equality. She played a key role in the creation of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

Education

- Studied at Allenswood Academy in England.
- Developed an early interest in social issues and public service.
- Influenced by progressive ideas about equality and human rights.

Education

- Studied at Allenswood Academy in England.
- Developed an early interest in social issues and public service.
- Influenced by progressive ideas about equality and human rights.

Professional Experience & Achievements

- First Lady of the United States (1933–1945) during Franklin D. Roosevelt's presidency.
- Supported New Deal programs during the Great Depression.
- Defended the rights of women, workers, and African Americans.
- Delegate of the United States to the United Nations (UN).
- Chair of the committee that drafted the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (1948).

Skills

- Leadership
- Public speaking
- Diplomacy
- Social activism
- Advocacy for human right

Legacy and Recognition

- Considered one of the most important women of the 20th century.
- Recognized worldwide for her work in human rights.
- Helped establish international standards for freedom and equality.